

Please maintain the portability of all telephone numbers, land line as well as wireless. Individuals and business should have the ability to maintain continuity with regard to their communications media. Especially when you consider the cost to small business owners to revise their business cards, letterhead, etc if they are forced to change numbers each time they change suppliers.

Thanks for your consideration.